GEO 2010

SECTION A (40 Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. Explain the significance of East African highlands to the Republic of Tanzania.
2. Differentiate between "under population" and "overpopulation".
3. Show how rapid increase of population affects the economy of developing countries.
4. Outline the solutions taken by the government of Tanzania to improve fishing industry.
5. (a) Define survey.

   (b) Mention three (3) types of survey in the Geographical context.
6. Describe the effects of earthquakes in the environment.
7. Explain the various causes of desertification.
8. Show how soil erosion can be prevented.
9. Why do people say that Geography is a multidisciplinary subject?
10. "The ozone layer is depleting." Give reasons to support the statement.

SECTION B (40 Marks)

Answer two (2) questions from this section.

11. Describe the salient features of a Geography room.
12. Comment on the importance of teacher-made teaching and learning materials against ready-made materials.
13. Point out the syllabus components and show their application using the ordinary level geography syllabus for secondary schools.
14. Explain the significance of applying gig saw as a teaching and learning technique in teaching a certain topic of Geography.

Scanned by CamScanner

SECTION C (20 Marks)

Answer two (2) questions from this section.

15. Identify and explain the most effective teaching and learning techniques in Geography lessons.

16. Practical Geography needs specified materials. Discuss.

17. Show the salient features of a scheme of work and state its significance to a Geography teacher.

18. Explain how you would conduct a fair assessment to your form II Geography students.

Scanned by CamScanner